CHORUS

3. I've seen all your qualifications,
You got from Sorbonne,
And the painting you stole from Picasso,
Your loveliness goes on and on,yes it does.

4. When you go on your summer vacation,
You go to Juan le Pain
With your carefully designed topless swimsuit,
You get an even suntan,on your back and on your legs.

5. And when the snow falls you're found in St.Moritz,
With the others of the Jet-Set,
And you sip your Napoleon brandy,
But you never get your lips wet,no you don't.

6. Your name it is heard in high places,
You know the Aga Khan,
He sent you a race horse for Christmas,
And you keep it just for fun,for a laugh, ha ha ha.

7. They say that when you get married,
It'll be to a millionaire,
But they don't realise where you came from
And I wonder if they really care,or give a damn.

8. I remember the back streets of Naples,
Two children begging in rags,
Both touched with a burning ambition,
To shake off their lowly born tags,they try.

9. So look into my face Marie-Claire,
And remember just who you are,
Then go and forget me forever,
But I know you still bear the scar,deep inside,yes you do.
